

Wear Shoes, Don't You?

If you do, we want to inform you in a few words that we are prepared to fix you in SURE ENOUGH LEATHER. Many shoes are made that look good, but when the real test comes they are wanting. Now we carry no lines of Shoes in stock, either Men's, Women or Children's, that we cannot absolutely guarantee to give you perfect satisfaction. If these are the kind you are looking for, we certainly want you to see our stock, and we will appreciate showing you, whether you buy or not. Our Korrect Shape Shoes for Men for fine wear, our Lion Shoes for service, are both good. Priesmeyer Shoes for Ladies and Children—none better. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Eld. W. B. Wright, assisted by Rev. B. W. Napier, at the Christian church at 2 o'clock p. m. Saturday, November 8th. Her remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery.

The deceased, who was 76 years of age, professed religion and joined the Methodist church about 60 years ago. She remained with this church until about 25 years ago, when she joined the Christian church with her husband, ever living a consecrated christian life.

The deceased and Mr. W. H. Moore were united in marriage December 25, 1865. To this union four sons and one daughter were born. The husband, three sons, E. P. Moore and Jno. T. Moore, Hartford, and W. D. Moore, New York City, survive. Her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Ford, preceded her on October 2, 1911, and the other son in infancy.

For working convicts on public highways, 856; against, 369.

For Tax Amendment, 708; against, 367.

Constables.

Beaver Dam Magisterial District—J. J. Jarnagin.
Sulphur Springs District—Lafe Grant.

Fordsville District—Dan Kirk.

Rosine District—Allen Coy.

Hartford Magisterial District had no candidate, but one vote was cast for Mr. R. T. Collins and a certificate was issued in his favor, but he will not qualify.

Likewise there was no candidate for Constable in the Centertown Magisterial District, but some one in the McHenry precinct voted for A. E. Thomas, of color, for Constable and a certificate of election was issued to him. It is not known whether he will qualify or not.

A DISCREPANCY IN THE ELECTION CERTIFICATES

There seems to be a discrepancy in the certificates given out at Rockport on the evening of the election and the one placed in the back of the stub-book from which the election commissioners made their count. The certificate held by the Democratic sheriff of election shows J. P. Sanderfur's vote to be 72 and C. E. Smith 105. We are informed that the certificate given to the Socialist officer of election showed the same. And likewise a certificate given to S. L. Fulkerson shows the same vote. But the certificate in the back of the ballot book from which the election commissioners made their count shows Mr. Sanderfur's vote to be only 61 and C. E. Smith's vote 116, giving Mr. Smith's majority at 25, whereas if the three certificates given out are correct, Smith only has 3 on the face of the returns. Mr. Sanderfur, when seen late yesterday afternoon, had not decided just what action he would take in the matter.

HOUSEKEEPERS Must be Watchful

For great efforts are being made in this vicinity to sell baking powders of inferior class, made from alum acids and lime phosphates, both undesirable to those who require high-grade cream of tartar baking powder to make clean and healthful food.

The official Government tests have shown Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful, grape cream of tartar baking powder, of highest strength, and care should be taken to prevent the substitution of any other brand in its place.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any other baking powder in the world.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all parties having claims against the estate of Carl Douglas Fraser, deceased, are requested to present same to me, as his administrator, at my office in the Taylor Coal Company's store, Taylor Mines, Ky., (post-office address, Beaver Dam, Ky.) on or before November 22, 1913, properly proven as required by law, or they will be forever barred. Dated this 17th day of October, 1913.

BEAVER DAM.

Nov. 10.—Beaver Dam is to have electric lights and water works. The town voted on whether or not the town should be bonded for that purpose and the question carried by a two-thirds vote. The town also elected Mr. S. P. Taylor as Police Judge. A new board of trustees was also elected. It is said one Democrat worked hard all day of the election against two of the Democratic candidates, but the trouble with him was that both the men he worked so hard to defeat were elected. This reminds us of a little incident that occurred at the great battle of Chickamauga. One boy in the Orphan Brigade who fought bravely was in every charge when the order was given to fire and did his best. After the battle was over it was learned that his weapon was a pop-gun.

Born to the wife of Mr. Wm. Smothers last Saturday morning, a girl. Dr. S. D. Taylor was the attending physician. The mother and child are doing well.

The farmers are gathering corn in this vicinity. Some is being delivered in town at 75c per bushel.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid had a quilting at Mrs. Rhoads' last Thursday and the same day the Baptist Ladies' Aid had a quilting at Mrs. A. K. Miller's. Both quiltings were for the benefit of the churches. If the male members would do half as well as the ladies, christianity would thrive in these parts.

Rev. A. B. Gardner will leave Monday for Lexington, Ky., to attend the General Association of Kentucky Baptists which convenes in that city this week.

Birmingham, Ala.—F. L. Willis, of the firm of Hardin & Willis, Pharmacists, suffered greatly from asthma and bronchitis, so badly he could not attend to business. As he writes: "I got no relief until I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It entirely removed those choking sensations, and never failed to produce an easy and comfortable condition of the throat and lungs." Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and accept no substitute. In the yellow package. For sale by all dealers. (Advertisement.)

There isn't no such animal as a placket any more, but you couldn't get a woman to bet that her dress was O. K. behind.

THE STUBBORN BEAST

May derive his obstinacy from the fact that he is being led away from, rather than to, my supply of feed he knows will make him a good meal. Try driving him my way—won't take much compulsion. I have no fear of temporary and permanent results from feeding horses, cattle, pigs and poultry on my hay, grain, etc.
